Patient Access Solutions Inc. Presents the CIIT Center to the Chinese-American Community

Commack, NY, September 26, 2017 –Patient Access Solutions, Inc. (PASO), a provider of healthcare/financial processing and management solutions for the healthcare, and dental industries, proudly announces that it presented the CIIT Center to the Chinese-American Community in Flushing, New York.

Bruce Weitzberg, CEO of Patient Access Solutions gave the presentation along with Dr. Michael Gruttadauria, Clinical Director for The CIIT Center. Additionally, US Congresswoman Grace Meng joined the panel to discuss the importance of integrative health care. In attendance were the leaders of the two most influential business associations in Flushing; The Flushing Chinese Business Association (FCBA) and The Greater Flushing Chamber of Commerce (GFCC). Coverage of the presentation from the media included The World Journal, NTDTV, DW News, Sing Tao Daily, and many more.

After discussing the work and mission of the center, Patient Access Solutions (PASO) proudly announced that it projects that it will open a location in Queens New York in 2018. “We are very excited to bring the successes of the CIIT Center to Queens next year. Queens is the world’s borough and a place where business and culture thrives because of its great diversity. The Flushing community is emblematic of this and we were honored to make it our first stop in Queens to discuss the center,” stated Mr.Weitzberg. While management will use its best efforts to open this new location, no guarantees can be provided that the location will open timely or will be profitable.

About the CIIT Center (www.theciitcenter.com)

The CIIT Center, specializing in the treatment of children with autism spectrum disorder, as well as adults with traumatic brain injury such as a concussion, and chronic conditions like migraine, post-traumatic stress disorder, autoimmune diseases and so much more. The Center occupies 12,500-square feet, in a street level office building located right off two major highways in Plainview, NY. The progressive center provides great efficiency and convenience in how we serve our patients. The goal is to create integrated, personalized treatment programs where the patient and staff work in unison to identify the underlying health conditions causing the issues, as opposed to just treating the symptoms.
